

MUSIC NOTES: In the year 1719 one of the greatest hymn writer of all time, Isaac Watts published one of the greatest hymns of all time. "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past" is a metrical version of the first five verses of Psalm 90. Popularized by the Methodist movement and John Wesley who made a number of alterations of the text, none more compelling than the opening word ("O God, Our Help..."). Adopted by most hymnal editors, it nonetheless was restored in our hymnal to the original. No one can seem to agree on the best way to make inclusive the original line in stanza 5 "bears all its sons away." The 1989 United Methodist Hymnal, "bears all who breathe away;" the 1990 Presbyterian Hymnal, "soon bears us all away;" the 2012 Glory to God, "bears all our years away."

An anthem today called "Raise Your Hands" was written (both words and music) by Heather Sorensen. Born in Illinois of Norwegian heritage she now lives in Dallas. If you read the text, it strongly hints that this could be a personal statement of the author's own faith journey. She said, "As I travel around the country, I often tell people that there's a little bit of blood and tears in each line; each phrase represents a very specific moment in my journey. While the title can be interpreted literally, the text goes much deeper than a physical 'raising' of the hands; it's more of a symbolic lifting of our hands and our hearts to God."

Gracious and loving God. We confess our sins to you. We spend too much time being selfish; too much time being greedy; too much time being angry. You are a patient God, showing your love to us even when we don’t deserve it. When we let you down, you show mercy and build us back up. Your love reaches to the heavens, your love reaches to the sky. Who are we Lord that you are always concerned for our well-being? We are your children, your sheep; teach us to always follow you and your ways. Amen

When oceans rise, my soul will rest in Your embrace for I am Yours and You are mine.

Your grace abounds in deepest waters, Your sov’ reign hand will be my guide.

Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me, You’ve never failed and You won’t start now.

Refrain

CALL TO OFFERING

MUSICAL OFFERING “Raise Your Hands” Heather Sorenson

*Raise your hands when you’re high upon the mountain, and you know that you’ve been blessed.
Raise your hands when you start your day with nothing, and you end with even less.
Raise your hands to the One who gives us ev’rything, yet He shines in emptiness.*

*Raise your hands when you’re off’ring up the sacrifice that you want to claim as yours.
Raise your hands, reaching up to heaven, when your heart’s bowed to the floor.
Raise your hands, trusting in the grace of God that has carried you before.*

*I will lift my hands to You, and bless Your name forever.
I will lift my hands to You and bless Your holy name.*

*Raise your hands when your heart is full of worship, and your songs are filled with praise.
Raise your hands when the battle ends in vict’ry, and God’s glory is ablaze.
Raise your hands. Let the earth shout, “Hallelujah!” and the people shout, “Amen!”
Raise your hands, and the hands that have been emptied, God will fill them once again.*
