

HYMN NOTES: Today is the final Sunday morning for the youth vocal and youth handbell choirs to appear in worship this season. We have had a stellar year and hope that everyone will put Sunday, June 1 at 3:00 p.m. on your calendars to come and experience our best of the year concert, "A Future with Hope—Youth Music 2014." Along with the choirs that day, we will feature graduating seniors, Alyssa Bates, Kylie Torres, Brianna Winder and Ally Wolf.

The handbell piece today is an arrangement of the old African-American spiritual, "Wade in the Water." The words include the phrase, "God's a-going to trouble the water." When God "troubled" or moved the water it was a sign that healing would take place. Water is a common cleansing symbol in the spirituals. It refers most of the time to the redemptive power of the River Jordan. The song was also used by Underground Railroad slave conductor Harriet Tubman to warn her fleeing charges how to throw pursuing bloodhounds off their scent. The bell piece ends with a crashing chord symbolizing that 'troubled water' which dissolves into glorious healing with a C major chord.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

Merciful God, Jesus' life, and the manner of his death, demonstrated that there was literally no limit to His love. We long to be faithful to your example for us: to serve each other in love and humility while serving your world with wisdom and energy. Forgive us when we stumble over pride, when our words and actions are not guided by love. Sometimes, many times, O God, our efforts fail or are foolish. By your strong and eternal grace, forgive us in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

*Train up a child in the way that he should go that he will never depart.
Train up a child in the way and she will grow with the word in her heart.

That they may live in God's love and grace.*

*Train up a child as you teach him right from wrong, as he follows the word.
Train up a child as you lead her to be strong, be strong in the Lord.
Feed them truth, guide the way, teach them promises God has made,

*Many voices call, many things may draw them far away.
Though their paths may go far away from home, the word shall remain,
The word will remain in their hearts.*
