

MUSIC NOTES:

The duet at the offering (8:15 and 11) was composed by the 19th century English composer and organist, Henry Thomas Smart (1813-1879). He spent the majority of his career as organist in parish churches in England. Smart was highly regarded by his contemporaries, but is now remembered only by a few organists and singers. His lasting composition is the hymn tune REGENT SQUARE to which we usually sing "Angels from the Realms of Glory." In the last fifteen years of his life he was nearly blind and composed by dictation.

Arise, your light is come! The Spirit’s call obey;
Show forth the glory of your God, which shines on you today.

Arise, your light is come! Fling wide the prison door;
Proclaim the captives’ liberty, good tidings to the poor.

Arise, your light is come! All you in sorrow born,
Bind up the broken-hearted ones and comfort those who mourn.

Arise, your light is come! The mountains burst in song!
Rise up like eagles on the wing; God’s power will make us strong.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

Almighty God, you sent your only Son to be the Light of the world. In the light of Jesus you shine a spotlight on the deepest longings of the human heart and what it means to live in the fullest and most authentic way possible. Forgive us, Dear Lord, for buying into the multiple sales pitches of this world which lead us away from the life-giving light of your love and back into the darkness of a boastful, bent and broken world. By your grace, lead us back into the presence of your guiding light so that we might reflect the light of your love to others, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
