

MUSIC NOTES: "Hymn of Promise" by Natalie Sleeth was written (words and music) in 1985 when (as the author writes) "I seem to have been much involved in pondering the ideas of life, and death, spring and winter, Good Friday and Easter....One evening we entertained a friend for supper, and he, too, had been pondering such themes and shared a work by T.S. Eliot in which there was a phrase something like 'In our end is our beginning.' That was virtually the catalyst for the form of the text which I wrote the next day or two... (as I wrote) I even bought a tulip plant—though it was in bloom and bright yellow—to contemplate the idea of the 'bulb' leading to the flower even though the bulb itself seems 'dead.'"

"Hymn of Promise" was first performed in anthem form at the Pasadena Community Church, St. Petersburg FL in March 1985. Soon after writing "Hymn of Promise" Natalie Sleeth's husband, Ronald, became ill with cancer. As the end neared, he asked her to use "Hymn of Promise" as one of the anthems at his funeral service which was done. Natalie writes, "a 'mysterious' set of circumstances, but—perhaps again—a sort of 'preparation.'" This hymn will appear in our new hymnal.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)

Almighty God, Ruler of all that is, visible and invisible, you know us by our names, even by our nicknames and you love us just as we are. But, in your grace, your love never leaves us as we are. Forgive us, dear Lord, for all too often we have subtly ignored and openly rejected your life-transforming grace because we prefer to remain as we are, prideful and self-absorbed. And where we have taken your name and yet lived for our own agenda, good Lord, convict us, redeem us and open us up to doing your will. In so doing, grant that our lives might count in bringing glory and honor to our Savior, Jesus Christ, who is the Lord of this life and the life to come. Amen.

*There’s the wonder of springtime and harvest, the sky, the stars, the sun;
But the wonder of wonders that thrills my soul is a wonder that’s only begun.
Oh, the wonder of it all, the wonder of it all, just to think that God loves me;*

*HYMN “We Come, O Christ, to You” DARWALL’S 148TH

We come, O Christ, to you, True Son of God and man,
By whom all things consist, in whom all life began:
In you alone we live and move, and have our being in your love.

You are the Way to God, Your blood our ransom paid;
In you we face our judge and maker unafraid.
Before the throne absolved we stand: Your love has met your law’s demand.

You are the living Truth, all wisdom dwells in you,
The source of ev’ry skill, the one eternal TRUE!
O great I AM! In you we rest, sure answer to our ev’ry quest.

You only are true Life—to know you is to live the more abundant life that earth can never give.
O risen Lord! We live in you: in us each day your life renew!
--text by Margaret Clarkson, 1957
